An effective method for figuring out a worth is to send out a survey to your current customers. If these customers have already purchased an book from you, ask for their opinion when it comes to price. Do this by creating a gross sales web page for the brand new e-book, but don't include a price on that page. Instead, add quite a few hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a worth to your ebook.

Another technique is to test out prices by making a number of duplicate sales pages with different costs on every page. Make sure your gross sales copy is precisely the same on every page, and includes your selling-handle sentence. Then determine for each page the conversion ratio between visitors to your web site and gross sales of your book. This will let you know what your optimum value is.

In the end, in the event you've written a ebook that solves a problem or presents a brand new approach, your guide will bring in each site visitors and profits. So make sure you write that selling-handle sentence that sums up what drawback your e-book solves and what the advantages of your 1130 e book will probably be to the customers who buy it. And then watch your market come to you!
