An efficient approach for figuring out a value is to send out a survey to your current customers. If these clients have already bought an e-book from you, ask for their opinion by way of price. Do that by creating a gross sales page for the new guide, but don't embrace a value on that page. As a substitute, add various links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a worth to your ebook.

Another strategy is to test out costs by making a variety of duplicate gross sales pages with completely different prices on every page. Be sure your sales copy is exactly the similar on every page, and contains your promoting-handle sentence. Then figure out for every page the conversion ratio between visitors to your site and sales of your book. This can tell you what your optimum price is.
